ABSTRACT

Anwar Ali Fikri, Istarul. 2012. An Analysis of Imperative Sentences in Troy Movie Script. Skipsi: English Education Department, Teacher Training and Education Faculty. Muria Kudus University. Advisor: (1) Fitri Budi Suryani SS, M.Pd. (2) Agung Dwi Nurcahyo SS, M.Pd

Key words: Movie Script, Imperative Sentence, Analysis.

Language is used for communication in a speech community or culture acquired by all people in much the same way-language and language learning both has universal characteristics. In delivering ideas, feelings and desires, people select the appropriate language. English has been considered as an international language. It is the fact that English mastery is very important for all who want and need to progress. When students do not pay attention to grammar, it will be difficult for them to use the language in communication with others successfully because it could make misunderstanding between speaker and hearer whereas it is the main purpose of communication. That is why grammar has important roles and it should be mastered by English learners.

In this research, I try to discuss the application of imperative sentence. The focuses of this review are: what are the imperative sentences used in Troy movie script, and what are the imperative functions of those imperative sentences used in Troy movie script. This reason makes me interested to do such an investigation.

I used qualitative research in form of descriptive method. It means the method is intended to make a systematic and accurate description concerning the facts and the features of research data. This research is the accumulation of basic data in descriptive way; not explains about correlation or hypothesis testing.

They were 62 imperative sentences found in the script of Troy, those are: 3 negative imperative, 54 affirmatives imperative and also 5 in single verb. It means that the actors/actress in Troy movie used to use imperative (use as the infinitive without to) as direct order. Meanwhile the function of imperative sentence I found 62 Imperatives sentences, those are contains of functions as follows: 23 commands, 19 requests, 5 invitations, 4 warnings, 6 prohibitions and 5 blessings. It means that the actors/actress in Troy movie used to use imperative as direct order.

In concluding I suggest that it will be better if we should be learning about imperative, it is not simple but we have to do it, we can begin with the simple one such as analyzing and learning the strategy and functions used in script, song lyric and books.
